Reconcile

I wanted to write something for this Steeple that will inspire you to be here this weekend at the Strawberry Festival. But you know what? You will be. You are committed to something larger than yourself. And even if something prevents you from being physically present this year, you will be present in spirit.

This year, as I dig through my dresser to find my stash of red shirts, I do so with a heavy heart. Many of us do, in fact. Our nation has been watching in horror as families pick up the pieces of their loved ones lives in the wake of the Orlando shooting. One of the big questions buzzing around asks whether this was a violent crime perpetrated against Latinos and/or the LGBTQ community or an act of terrorism from a homegrown religious extremist. Any way we look at it, it's a hate crime. Bickering over semantics hardly helps fix the problem.

I've been listening to the news reports while meditating on 2 Corinthians 5:16-21 in preparation for the sermon this weekend. Paul says,

"So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God." NRSV

...a ministry of reconciliation...That is easier said than done. Our nation is bitterly divided over partisan politics and (it seems) completely stuck on what the best thing would be to make us all safer. Our churches are divided over theological and social justice ideologies, unsure on whether or not they can truly affirm ALL God's children. Our families are divided over many of these same issues, and more. And we can be divided internally and "beside ourselves" over all of the above. I know that's how I feel right now. To re-concile is to make this true once again: to re-do it. How? Again, easier said than done. So I pray: Lord, give us the wisdom to know how to be reconciled to one another. And give me the wisdom to know the words to say this coming weekend as we gather together. Amen.

In peace, Pastor Jenn

Strawberry Festival News

Just a few days until the 45th Annual Strawberry Festival on June 18th and 19th !

Strawberry Festival

Please remember that Everyone is invited to the Celebration Dinner immediately following cleanup on Sunday evening. Generally when we get the break-down done quickly, we eat at around 6. This is a wonderful time for all of us to relax after our fun filled weekend, share a meal together and celebrate! We look forward to working with all of you the weekend of the festival! Yours in service and fellowship, Clark Gingras and John Maiolo

Calling All Bakers!! We Need You!! Strawberry Festival -June 19th & 20th The Strawberry Festival depends on your homemade baked goods to stock the Country Store. Please bring your cookies, breads, cakes, & other goodies to: Dineson Parlor by Friday, June 18th (please, no frosted items)

Thank you, Strawberry Festival Committee

Summer Worship with St. Peter's Episcopal Church!

One of the highlights of every summer is joining in worship with our friends from St. Peter's in an outdoor setting. Please bring a lawn chair

- On July 24th at 10AM We will host St. Peter's on our side of the green
- On August 21st at 9AM. St. Peter's will host us on their side of the green

Outreach

It's that time again...the next St. George's supper is on June 20th. Please bring all food to the church by June 19th at 11am. If you take a tag and are unable to fulfill your commitment please contact the church office 203-268-9327.

Dress A Girl Around The World Sew-A-Thon Returns July 16th from 10am-3pm~

Join Liz Skarzyinski from Dress A Girl Around The World on July 16th in Wilton Hall to create dresses for little girls overseas. There has been a request from India for dresses for girls there. Our goal will be to make 50 T-shirt dresses, a different style than the sun-dresses but in some ways is a little easier to make. Thank you for your generous donations of fabric. If you would like to contribute we need small toys that can fit in a 2-3 inch square pocket. Dress A Girl is part of Hope for Women International a non-profit, nondenominational independent Christian organization. If you would like to help or join the team, please call Liz 203-257-7174 or email Liz1202us@yahoo.com.

Summer Camp at Hogwarts: Vacation Bible School, Aug 1- 5, 2016

Have you ever wanted to experience the wonder of Hogwarts, the deliciousness of Butterbeer, the excitement of magic classes? Our week in the wizarding world will provide all that with other fun activities like House Sorting, Quidditch, Potions Class, and more. If your child is a Harry Potter fan, our VBS will be an incredible chance to indulge his/her love for one of the most iconic series of this generation (and learn a bit more about our faith as we do!) Registration forms are online at mcc-ucc.org/ministries/vacation-bible-school.html and in the church office. Volunteers also needed, please contact VBS co-chairs Lani Siciliano lanimsis@yahoo.com or Liska Gutierrez at liskag7@gmail.com for more information.

May We Borrow?

The parents, professors and administrators at Hogwarts are in need of some supplies. If we can use or borrow anything on this list, we would be ever so grateful. If you would like an item we borrow to be returned, please mark it with your name before turning it into the office:

- Black graduation gowns
- Brooms and tiki lamps (without lamp part) for Quidditch
- A mortar and pestle for Potions Class
- Toilet paper tubes for O.W.L.S.
- Any general Harry Potter decorations

Gratefully, Prof. Minerva McGonagall

Community News

Bible Reading Marathon: The Monroe Clergy Association is coming together for a Bible Reading Marathon this August at the town gazebo. Pastor Jenn invites everyone (of any age) to join the MCC team during our assigned spots: Thursday, August 18th from 10am to noon and Saturday, August 20th from noon until 2pm. As is our congregational tradition, the team will discuss what we've read following the group read. Sign-up in Wilton Hall, and bring your Bible on the day of the event. Let Pastor Jenn know if you have any questions, jenn@mcc-ucc.org.

The Hogwarts Sorting Hat Questionnaire

The Sorting Hat, bless its frayed brim, is taking a quick rest. So in the interim, we think a placeholder is best. New Hogwarts students, worry not! We'll find a home for you. But instead of that charmed chapeau, this quiz will have to do.

1.) You are given a test at school that has questions that teacher hasn't covered yet. In the middle of the test you notice that your friend next to you has a cheat-sheet. The teacher doesn't notice.

- ☐ Ask to share the cheat-sheet. This test isn't fair, so why should you be?
- ☐ Good for them, they beat the system.
- ☐ Confront them after the test and try to convince them not to cheat anymore. You don't want them to get in trouble.
- ☐ Confront them after the test and force them to tell the teacher they cheated, or you will tell on them. They must pay for their misdeeds.
- ☐ Inform the teacher right in the middle of class that they are cheating. Cheaters never prosper!

2.) While walking down the street you see a wallet on the side of the road. It has a small amount of money in it, but no identification of any kind. There is nobody in sight.

- ☐ Leave it there. Someone is probably looking for it.
- ☐ Pocket the money. You don't know who it belongs to, so finder's keepers.
- ☐ Take it to the police in case anyone ever reports it.
- ☐ Take the wallet, and go around the area asking anyone if they have lost a wallet recently.

3.) Someone has played a prank on you which involves your public embarrassment and everyone begins laughing at you. However, you doubt they meant any harm by it.

- ☐ Laugh along with the crowd. You love a good joke even if it's at your expense.
- ☐ On the outside you'll laugh because you don't want anyone to know that they really hurt your feelings by making you look stupid in front of everybody.
- ☐ You get upset and run away from the crowd. How could they be so mean?
- ☐ Pretend that all is well, but you won't forget this. They're going to pay for what they did! How dare they publicly humiliate you.

6.) A kid accuses you, in front of a whole crowd people, of stealing his toy which you did not do. You are twice his size, but he won't back off.

- ☐ How dare he insult me in front of all these people? I'll show him how things work in the real world!
- ☐ Explain to him that I didn't take his toy and give him fair warning that he'll have a black eye if he doesn't drop it.
- ☐ Try to rationalize with the kid. Tell him you didn't take the toy and refuse to fight him even if he takes a few swings at you.
- ☐ Tell him you didn't take the toy and direct him to someone who can help him find it.
- ☐ Explain to him you didn't take the toy and offer to personally help find the person who did.
