The Ministry of Lay Preachers

Of the 168 hours in a week, we set one aside precisely for worship. Worship is work that is not exactly work, an activity that isn't very active (neither is it passive) and that yields no product—except sometimes a kind of deepening... a shifting of perspective... which may lead to an interior transformation, a revelation or call us to live another way.

Sometimes, by luck or grace, we glimpse something invisible when we are together in worship: a sense of reassurance, acceptance, comfort, or peace—whether peace of mind or peacefulness of spirit—which gives us strength for the hours and days ahead. We may feel gratitude, forgiveness, praise or resolution. Or we may feel an unwelcome and uneasy challenge to our convictions or an unexpected stirring to act with more courage.

These feelings are immeasurable, intangible, and yet are not felt by everyone at once in the same way. That is because worship is communal and yet essentially private. Who knows how far any one of us may travel between the Gathering Music and Benediction?

At MCC, our worship is made up of many parts: Music, Prayer, Scripture, Sermon and sometimes Sacrament. In the congregational tradition, worship is considered the work of people. I'm consistently in awe of what the people of MCC bring with them as worship leaders each week. One of the less common areas that someone might participate in is writing and preaching a sermon.

With a restructured staff, the opportunity for more people to preach has opened up at MCC. If you feel that you may have a gift for preaching and leading worship and want to explore this further, let's talk. There are a few Sundays in the summer I am away and will need coverage. If you have ever been curious about writing and delivering sermons, I'd love to give you some training and prepare you to lead one of them in my absence.

As my preaching professor Dr. Benjamin Watts would often say "We've all got one sermon in us, one thing that God is trying to work out through our voice." Ever wonder what your one sermon might be?

In peace, Pastor Jenn

Outreach

Many thanks to everyone who made the 2016 Tag Sale a huge success! It was truly an inter-generational event with people of all ages contributing items, sorting, tagging, selling and loading the truck at the end of the sale. Together we raised $3600.00 to help support such charities as Bridgeport Rescue Mission, Project Warmth, The Center for Women and Families, Habitat for Humanity and our own Senior PF for their mission trip. We also helped local families purchase many items at rock bottom prices. All unsold items were donated to Make a Home Foundation in Waterbury to benefit veterans and their families. Through your generosity, the MCC Tag Sale has become a highly anticipated event which touches the lives of many people. Julie McClenathan, Chair of The Board of Christian Outreach

The next St. George's Supper is April 18th

CROP Walk: Spring is finally here. The weather may change but hunger stays with our brothers and sisters locally and around the world. Each May your Board of Outreach sponsors the CROP walk in Bridgeport to raise funds to end hunger. This year the event will be held on May 1st from 1:30 to 5pm. There is a short, 3.7k walk and a long, 8.0 k. This is how it works: If you want to walk, please take an envelope from Trees Whitbeck and start collecting sponsors to pledge money to you. If you cannot walk but want to participate, please sponsor a walker. All contributions are tax deductible.
