At the end of June, my daughter Cady and I had the wonderful opportunity to attend the United Church of Christ's Thirty-Second General Synod in Milwaukee, Wisconsin! Cady went as one of those elusive 'Young Adult' delegates with the Fairfield East Association. Her job was to attend early morning delegation meetings, and vote on important matters coming before the church at large.

The theme for the 32nd General Synod was based on the scripture Matthew 5:16 "In the same way let your light shine before others . . ." GS is always an extraordinary event in the life of the Church, delegates and visitors experienced dynamic workshops, generative plenary sessions, inspirational worship, engaging youth activities, special banquets, and luncheons. Delegates conducted the business of the denomination and set priorities for our ministries. Keynote speakers offered illumination and insight into challenges that face our congregations and communities.

Delegates applaud passage of Together As One

I attended as the proponent of a resolution that had its beginning two years ago at an MCC deacon planning meeting, "Denouncing Acts of Violence, Hatred and Racism Carried out in the Name of Neo-Nazi and White Supremacist Ideologies". I was also able to sub in as a conference delegate because one of them became ill. The good news is that our resolution passed with 673 yes's, 2 no's and 4 abstentions (not that I am competitive, but it gave me some satisfaction to see that of all the resolutions ours had the lowest number of 'no' votes)! The better news is that the committee which worked on the resolution before presenting it to plenary made it better by adding the development of a national curriculum which will help local churches in the event they are threatened or harassed by these hate groups.

Voting on the Resolution

Another very important resolution was passed, which you might already know about: Together As One, which is the work of bringing together the historically regional Massachusetts, Rhode Island and CT. This is an important next step in becoming a Southern New England Conference. The folks who work at the conference level, along with the Boards of Directors, are settling into new leadership roles which should strengthen the overall mission and ministry of everyone involved.

I want to thank you all for your prayers and good wishes on this journey, it was truly an amazing moment in church history to be a part of!

In peace, Pastor Jenn

Trustees

Capital Campaign for Beardsley Windows a Success!

The MCC Board of Trustees is launched and successfully completed a summer capital campaign to support the replacement of six windows in the older part of Beardsley Hall. This is the back part of the building that used to be the old Monroe Town Centre School and is now used by the Gingerbread School House and the Mustard Seed. The current windows in question date back to the 1800s, with single-pane glass lending little insulation. And because they contain lead paint, they have been made inoperable and the Monroe Health Department has recommended their replacement.

The estimated cost to replace the six windows is $5,000. The Gingerbread School House has committed to contributing $1,000 to the project, and the Mustard Seed has committed $1,000 as well. That left $3,000 that we need to obtain funding for from the congregation. The great news is that WE DID! In fact, thanks to your generosity, we have raised enough to meet our goal with an overage that we are applying to replacing the 30+ year old carpet!

Thanks to the following people and groups who helped us meet our goal:

Transitional Realignment of Staff Planned

*Members of the three conference staffs together on retreat in February.
By Tiffany Vail, Associate Conference Minister of Communications*

The staffs of the three Southern New England conferences will shift into a new, transitional structure for 2020, working together on teams aligned around their ministry and program areas rather than being separated by geography.

“As we create a new conference together we are moving towards aligning a staff model around the core values that are critical to our future life as the Southern New England Conference,” said Connecticut Conference Minister The Rev. Kent Siladi. “Our new staff configuration will be a great way for us to learn from one another and to align our passions and gifts with the core values.”

The three current Conference Ministers will shift their roles and responsibilities so that they each oversee staff teams that are oriented around various aspects of the new conference’s **Vision, Mission and Purpose Statement**. The three have agreed to stay on for a bridge year while a search is conducted for a new leader for the unified conference. (Related article: **New Conference Will Have New Leader**, April 23, 2019)

Their roles will be as follows:

- Marilyn Kendrix will become the Bridge Conference Minister of Discipleship. She will work with the staff team that is focused on assisting churches in their work to Make Disciples of Jesus Christ (one of the four main foci of the vision). This will include resourcing faith formation for all ages, outdoor ministries, communications, spiritual practice and spiritual care.

- Kent Siladi will become the Bridge Conference Minister of Love and Justice. He will work with the staff team that resources justice and witness ministries, lifted up in the Making God's Love and Justice Real focus of the vision. He will also work with the staff team that oversees financial management and development, and will take the lead on Building Covenant Partnerships, another of the vision's four core values.
- Don Remick will become the Bridge Conference Minister of Adaptive Change. He will work with the staff team that focuses on the piece of the vision that Seeks to Bring New Life as Agents of Change. This will include working with the staff currently serving the regions and associations. He will also work with the governance oversight of the new conference.

These changes will officially take effect on Jan. 1, 2020, when the Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island conferences are formally replaced by the Southern New England Conference (the name is pending approval by Annual Meeting). No jobs will be eliminated on Jan. 1 when the transitional structure goes into effect; the staff will become employees of the new conference, which will be operating under a single budget.

This is a transitional plan; a subcommittee of the new conference board is developing a staffing plan for 2021. That team will make a recommendation to the board, and the board intends to present it for information purposes at the November Annual Meeting. The new staffing model will be implemented over the course of 2020-2021.

"The development of the new conference will be an evolution, not a flipping of the switch," said Massachusetts Interim Transitional Conference Minister The Rev. Don Remick.

There are no current plans to make changes to office locations. Staff members will continue to work out of their current offices, and their contact information will remain the same.
