July 15, 2017

In one of his many letters, the Apostle Paul says, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." (Hebrews 13:2)

What a strange thing to say! Perhaps he is referring to other times when his ancestors in faith were unaware that they were hosting angelic beings (Abram and Sarai in Genesis 18, Lot in Genesis 19, Gideon in Judges 6, Samson's parents in Judges 1). Or maybe, Paul is giving a word of advice about hospitality or recounting an ancient Jewish proverb which has been lost to time. However this verse came about, it reflects a strong cultural directive that was adhered to in the ancient Hellenic world. Given the harshness of the environment, it would be surprising if the Second-Temple Jews did not, in some way, share a concern for hospitality.

I thought a lot about hospitality this past week in Chicago with the Senior Pilgrim Fellowship. Our hosts, St. Paul's United Church of Christ in the Lincoln Park neighborhood, were so wonderfully accommodating – even in the midst of their VBS week (see an article about that by clicking here.) They provided not only sleeping space but also full access to their kitchen, restroom and shower facilities as well as additional program space for us to have worship, meetings and conversation. Their pastors Matt and Sarah welcomed us with open arms, and when we exhausted our planned worksites in the middle of the week they suggested additional places to serve. I am very grateful for everything they did for us.

There was one member of St Paul's staff who went above and beyond providing our needs. His name is Ed (in the center of the picture to the left) and he is the evening custodian. After coming back and showering on the first day of work, Ed gathered our towels and put them in a dryer. We try to keep our surroundings cleaner than how we found them, but sometimes we forgot and left a phone and charger or a soda can lying around. Ed would gather anything that looked like trash and toss it, and he'd safely lock up any valuable items.

As we enjoyed our final dinner at home base, we had an opportunity to say thank you to Ed and give him a small gift in honor of his service. He choked up a bit when he told us that he asked God to show him a way to serve, and that he was so impressed every night hearing about the ways we were helping people in the city. He told us that he thought that helping us made him a part of our mission team.

Ed, we found out the day before, lives in one of the nearby city shelters. Although he works nearly full time at 35 hours a week, he is one of the 13.4% of people living in the greater Chicago Metro area that lives with poverty. When we came home in the evening and held group discussions about the realities of poverty and homelessness we encountered in our work, he was listening.

The good news is that Ed wasn't insulted when we voiced some of our stereotypes that didn't fit with his story, and later in the week he was willing to share details about his life that helped us put a human face on an overwhelming issue. The better news is that Ed is moving into a safe and clean apartment this week, and out of the shelter. We sincerely hope that his future remains bright, and may God bless him as he has blessed us.

I'm so grateful for all the people we meet on these mission trip adventures, and the many ways they inspire us. It is so important to connect with and better understand the human beings that live in the places we serve. They are the real angels. Our interactions help us to see how we are all part of wider community that extends far beyond the confines of the area. This helps our young people develop a deeper compassion for others as they learn more about the world and how beautiful and broken it can be. I'm just grateful to be along on their journey.

With much love, Pastor Jenn

Join the MCC Scripture Reading Team!

Would you like to read the weekly scripture at church on Sunday for the congregation? Making a commitment to read scripture aloud is one way of growing in faith. Not everyone is able to commit to an in-person group Bible study, so by learning more about the text you will be reading helps keep skills sharp! You will be scheduled to read every few months, and if something comes up you will have a list of people to call to switch weeks. You will receive the scripture reading prior to your scheduled date along with a copy of the corresponding bulletin. If you are interested in joining the team, please contact Melissa at secretary@mcc-ucc.org or 203-268-9327 By July 30. A new fall schedule will be sent mid-August. Thank you!

Trustees

Help MCC Pave Its Way to a Brighter Future!

Here is your opportunity to help us upgrade the MCC campus and ALSO honor a local business, friend, colleague, family member, or loved one by sponsoring the installation of a personalized, engraved brick! The Trustees are launching a "buy a brick campaign" to help finance the cost of replacing a deteriorated walkway running alongside Rexford House. Each standard-size, 4" x 8" brick is $125, and allows three lines of text comprised of eighteen characters each. Order forms (and an online option) will be available soon. For further information, please contact the church office or Mark Barnhart at msbarnhart515@gmail.com.

It's summertime, and while many of you will be enjoying summer vacations, the work of MCC continues. Please do what you can to stay current on your pledge payments over the summer months, even though you might not be able to attend Sunday services. You can arrange for electronic payment from your bank, or via the "Donate" page on our web site: <http://www.mcc-ucc.org/donate.html>

Thanks for your support of MCC and have a great summer! Sincerely – John O'Rourke, Receiver
