THE MONROE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

STEEPLE

March 1, 2023

This month begins the season of Lent. Often we hear of people giving things up for Lent. We might decide not to eat desserts, candy, and chocolate, drink alcohol or coffee or snack between meals. Some people quit smoking. But there is something else we can do for Lent... we can give God more of our time.

There are 168 hours in each week. How many of those hours do we give to walking faithfully with God? It's true that most of us are very busy, and we don't often have enough time to do all the things we want to do. This, by the way, is one reason I haven't been able to expand my hobby farm yet to include goats or alpacas... not enough time!

Research reveals that the "typical" global internet user now spends almost 7 hours per day – 6 hours and 58 minutes to be precise – using the internet across all devices¹. While it's true that for many of us those hours include work endeavors, we also know our phones and tablets can be a huge time suck!

How we use our time reflects our priorities in life. If God is important to us, God deserves quality time; not just what is left over. In 1 Thessalonians 5:16, we read: "Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." If we decide to spend more of our time in prayer with God, we will have a transformational Lent. How do we do that?

Attending worship regularly is an excellent Lenten practice. We might decide to read a chapter of scripture each day, or to pray longer or more often, or to spend time meditating. Pray for others. Pray for the world. Pray for the sick. Pray for the lonely. Pray for yourself. Prayer isn't just good for others; it is good for us too! It is a wonderful connection to God. It also gives us an opportunity to do something during times of crisis, fear, frustration, or even joy.

Have a blessed Lent, Pastor Jenn

Deacons

Deacon Flocks Updated February 25, 2023

Each member of our board of Deacons is assigned a “flock”, a group of people that they care for through regular communication and prayer. If you have requests or concerns that you would like to share, your deacon is available. Such requests or concerns might include:

- a need for prayer
- a request for help (transportation to a doctor’s appointment or church function, etc.)
- a sorrow (illness, accident, death or other crisis)
- a joy (a birth, graduation, upcoming wedding, etc.)
- something that particularly pleases you, or would better meet your needs in the worship service

Naturally, if you are more comfortable with contacting one of the other deacons, or one of your pastors, please do so. If you do not know your Deacon, ask someone to introduce you. He or she looks forward to meeting you and getting to know you better.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS: TAG SALE'S COMING!

Saturday, March 18, the famous MCC tag sale returns. So, start putting aside your "gently used, good stuff" so we can sell it to people who can use it.

All items must be clean and in good condition.
There are some things that we cannot accept:

- electronics including old computers, monitors, boom boxes or phones (of any type),
- coffee mugs,
- stuffed toys,
- cribs, car seats or pack and plays,
- encyclopedias, textbooks or VHS tapes,
- bicycles that are not complete and rideable,
- blankets, comforters, or linens that have holes or are not clean,
- plastic food storage items,
- anything broken or chipped,
- large or heavy items such as dining room sets, particle board furniture, bookcases or upholstered chairs or couches.

We ask that you email Julie McClenathan (juliemcclenathan@gmail.com) pictures of furniture items before deciding to bring them to the tag sale.

Also, we will not be able to do pickups so bring your stuff to Wilton Hall at times that will be announced.

Thank you for your generous donations!

Another way to serve at MCC is volunteering at the Mustard Seed Thrift Shoppe. There are so many ways to help out here:

- 1) Sorting, tagging and hanging occurs on Tuesdays at 1PM, just show up at the Gingerbread door and the ladies will guide you with the process.
- 2) Manning the counter - Volunteer for a two-hour shift either on Friday or Saturday with easy step-by-step instructions on how to open or close the Shoppe with everything in between by contacting Susie Cuseo at thecuseos@yahoo.com or 203-268-0280 to sign up.
- 3) Donate your precious goods - gently-used clothing, toys, books, shoes and small household items in the collection box located outside the Shoppe or drop off during business hours or when the ladies are sorting on Tuesdays.

Monies from sold items go to Outreach programs, pilgrim fellowship and special projects that may come up. It's quite a rewarding experience to see how your efforts provide for the congregation and community.

Church Parlor to Beardsley Hall

How is it that Beardsley Hall was named for Elizabeth A. Beardsley's late husband, Dr. Edward McEwen Beardsley, when it was built in 1886, when he did not die until March 11, 1905? It turns out that it wasn't. A review of the "New Stratford Ecclesiastical Society Book of Records 1841 -1936" and the "Ladies Improvement Society Minutes of June 1931 - May 1936" gives evidence that the structure built in 1886 was simply called the "Church Parlor". Two letters found in our archives (Ladies Improvement Society Misc. Correspondence -1982), one from Bessie Denison and the other from Mildred Fagan both entitled, "In the Beginning", provide a summarized history of how it all came about.

A few years prior to 1886, Elizabeth Beardsley decided that the new Meeting House of forty-nine years needed a "hall" for social gathering. According to Mildred, she started a fund for it with five dollars "and decided to make it grow into a hall". She inspired the few of the fifty-nine women of the church at the time to join in fund raising activities; quilt making, strawberry shortcake dinners (had to have one of those), ice cream socials, fairs, and such.

The Ladies Improvement Society

Two of the women were her daughters, Sarah (Beardsley) Sinclair, and Elizabeth Adeline (Beardsley) Sears. By 1886 they had raised enough money to convince Sarah's brother-in-law, Robert Sinclair, to donate the property between the Meeting House and the Town Hall/Masonic Lodge Hall for their building. This was a project independent of the Church itself. In those days, say both Mildred and Bessie, "it was considered improper for a woman to handle money", so they secured the services of the then Church Treasurer, Albert Wheeler, to handle their finances. When the building was finished it was referred to as "the Church Parlor". According to Mildred's summary letter, Elizabeth Beardsley wanted the building named in honor of her husband, Dr. Edward M. Beardsley. It is safe to presume that he had a significant financial hand in his wife's project. But, alas, it remained "the Church Parlor".

The offshoot of this project was the creation and incorporation, "by resolution of the State House of Representatives of the Ladies Improvement Society of the Monroe Congregational Church, January Secession, A.D. 1887", the following year. There were fourteen charter members. It was this ladies society that maintained the Parlor through more fundraisers. They purchased two wood stoves for heating and replaced three different kitchen stoves over the next three years. They provided kitchenware and serving pieces, silverware, chairs (which they rented), linoleum flooring, and painting. There was no central plumbing or running water though. The Parlor was rented to the Grange for their meetings before their own facility was built. Anything that was "proper" to raise money for the Parlor's upkeep was tried and carried forward. It remained the "Church Parlor" until 1933; twenty-eight years after the death of Dr. Beardsley and thirteen years after the death of Elizabeth.

The Society minutes of February 16, 1933, records "A motion made and seconded to change the name of Church Parlor to Beardsley Hall. Carried. A motion made to name a committee to purchase a tablet and have it properly inscribed to be placed on the outside of the Hall. Carried. The committee as follow: Mrs. Sears, Mrs. Sinclair (Dr. Beardsley's two daughters, and) Mrs. Stanley." Both Bessie Denison and Mildred Fagan were in attendance. It would have been more beneficial for historical purposes if the minutes reflected who made the motion and the second, and precisely for whom the Hall was named. Bessie Denison's letter declares that, "... the Hall was named in honor of its founder". It may be that because the recording Secretary was Dr. Beardsley's granddaughter-in-law, Alice (Shelton) Beardsley, more detail was not forthcoming. Yet, with the Beardsley daughters present, and their knowing Elizabeth's desire, the likelihood is that it was, in fact, "named in honor of her late husband", however unceremoniously.

Two years after this took place, the July 11, 1935 Society minutes recorded "It was voted to let the men connect the building on to Beardsley Hall & Ladies to help all they can." The September 19th minutes indicate a corner stone was to be laid to attach the Old Tannery Road school house to the back of the Hall. The Men's Club had purchased the school house at auction held by the Town of Monroe. The November 7th meeting minutes indicate that the Ladies "pay $200 to the Men's Club." So, not surprisingly, they were involved in the finance of the addition. Finally, on January 16, 1936 it was noted that a letter was "received from the Men's Club thanking the Ladies for (their) help in getting the Hall fixed." The kitchen was relocated in the school house addition, and plumbing and electricity were added to the building.

At the Annual Church Meeting of January 1953, the Society Secretary, Bessie Denison, reported that they had a membership of 23 ladies and concluded that, "As the membership in our society is small and does not seem to grow very fast, we feel that the church should take the burden of Beardsley Hall from us, but we would continue to contribute towards its support as much as we are able." So after an amazing sixty-seven years, driven by the conviction and purpose that still exists today, it was done. In July of 1956, the congregation took on the expansion of Beardsley Hall with the addition out the east side of the building to add needed class rooms for Sunday school. After some schedule impacting delays, it was completed in January 1958, when the keys to the new front door were presented by the builder, T. R. Burghart, Inc., of Bridgeport.

Historically faithful, Gary Thompson, Church Historian
